Polish-Greek seminar
“Polish People’s Republic and the civil war in Greece”

Szczecin, 14 of June 2013

hotel “Willa West Ende”, Wojska Polskiego Avenue 65

By 1949 in Greece was a civil war fought between government’s army and military forces of the Greek Communist Party (KKE). After the collapse of the communist guerrilla actions, Poland as one of the satellite countries of the USSR, adopted more than 13,000 refugees from Greece: soldiers from units fighting under the auspices of the KKE, their families and supporters. Asylum in Poland found more than 3,000 children evacuated from areas of military operations.

During the Polish-Greek academic seminar organized in Szczecin we are going to raise the issues of secret military operation in which refugees from Greece where settled in Poland, their adjustment to the new place of living, the government's policy towards the immigrants and their socio-cultural life in new homeland. Historical background will be enriched with testimonies of refugees from Greece and their descendants still living in Poland.

The seminar will be held in Polish and Greek with simultaneous interpretation.
